College event a success

ANDREW SCHNELL
Northpine Christian College

NORTHPINE Christian College held its annual Open Night on May 29.

It was a great way to experience the school in a fun setting with many avenues of discovery and entertainment.

One of the highlights of the evening was that visitors had the opportunity to have a sneak-peek of Northpine's brand new high school building.

The Secondary School showed exhibits from all the different subject departments in the new classrooms.

Challenge class had their mountain bikes on display, letting people know about the mountain bike track located on Northpine's property.

Similarly, Outdoor Education brought out the canoes, which are used on camps and in Northpine's reservoir.

Visual Art displayed various student-made art pieces, and Industrial Technology showed off their 3D printers.

Students Samara Sykes and Lachlan Redman, both Year 12.

Throughout the night, visitors watched performances by music students in the new outdoor amphitheatre.

New families could take a tour by current Northpine students.

There was a science exhibit and show run by Northpine's Science Department.

In the undercover basketball court, the Primary School set up booths for each year level, giving parents the opportunity to talk with teachers and learn more about what their students have been studying in class.

The Library was bustling with people purchasing books at the Book Fair, themed "Catch the Reading Wave". The Refresh Northpine Community Church set up a jumping castle, and the school chaplains were around to talk about their upcoming STORMCo (Service to Others Really Matters) Trips.

At 6pm, the Performing Arts Centre filled to watch the mini-concert by Mozart Strings and the Viva Voce Choir, as well as the Year 1 and Prep classes.

Overall, it was a most enjoyable night. Nearly 40 enrolment packs were requested by prospective families, and well over 1000 people were in attendance.
